

Annual Economic Review

a world class African city

2025

// With its favourable climate, developed infrastructure, and its strategic geographic and economic position at the centre of the nation, Johannesburg has the potential to overcome the challenges of sluggish economic growth and reach the heights of its vast capabilities. To realise this potential, it will be essential for Johannesburg to draw investment into its primary and secondary sectors. This is crucial not only for the city itself but also for South Africa, considering Johannesburg's importance to the national economy //
